THEY ARE AT IT AGAIN! INVOLUNTARY REASSIGNMENTS UPDATE

Attention Members:

I have been notified that on or about June 30, 2015, fifty-five (55) full-time clerks are going to be involuntarily reassigned (Excessed) from the craft and/or installation at the Oakland bid cluster. The Los Angeles, San Jose, Redding and Eureka Post Offices have excessing notices with April move dates.

The impacted employees will be notified of their involuntary reassignment by letter. According to the Postal Service, this action is being taken based on a F1 Network Rationalization baseline staffing review. The previous excessing event was based on a "new 24 Hour Clock Operating Plan and improved efficiencies."

Every effort will be made by the APWU to have the involuntary reassignments cancelled.

If you have any questions regarding this announcement, please contact me.

The struggle continues.
